ASTIGMATISM.

What it is, and How Corrected.

Asigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the film known as the cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T.
JOHNSTON put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 3024 S. Elm St.

A PLEASING SUCCESS.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin at the Academy Last Night.

"The Pied Piper of Hamelin," J.
W. Tillingshaw's charming operetta, which, on account of its authorship by a Greensboro gentleman and its production by local talent, has been looked forward to with unusual eagerness, was presented for the first time in this city at the Academy of Music last night, to an audience that was large and select. Those who went there expecting an almost unprecedented success had good cause to engratulate themselves, for the play was one of the most entertaining ever participated in by local talent.

Miss Hattie Wallington, as Hilda, and Mr. Richard Crawford, as Rudolph, deserve to be mentioned first.
Their parts were beautiful and their renditions absolutely faultless, and early in the play the two became the favorites with the audience. Miss Wallington but recently "took the town by storm" by her interpretation of the leading role in "Patience," while Mr. Crawford took a prominent part in the same play. Both won new and unflattering laurels last night.

Prof. Clarence L. Brown, as the Pied Piper, and Mr. B. S. Phillips, as the Burghomester, and Mr. Wesley White, as Fritz, each of whom already had enviable records as actors, played their parts to perfection.

Mrs. S. L. Alderman, as Mother Rita, played her part with the best effect.

Misses Lalyce Duffy, Mozelle Andrews and Lola Reid, the three saucy maidens; Miss Kate Tate and Emma Duffy, maids of honor; Mr. W. D.
Ridenhour, the tavern-keeper, and Mr. Jesse Alderman, the timid watchman, played their parts exceedingly well.

The solos, duets and trios, by the different members of the cast, were beautiful and well rendered and each won a wave of applause.

Excellent music was furnished by the original Greensboro Orchestra, with Mrs. Myra Albright at the piano.

The Pied Piper of Hamelin will be repeated here by the same cast on Thursday night of next week. That it will be greeted by a packed house goes without saying.

CHARGED WITH RAPE.

Three Negro Boys to Answer For a Horrible Crime.

Three young negroes, none of them grown, are in Guilford jail, charged with a horrible crime and if the charges are true at least one of them will most probably be tried for his life at the next term of superior court.

The boys are John Clapp, aged 15; Rufus Alston, aged 17; and Robert Rankin, aged 18. They are charged with the rape of Roberta McMurray, colored, the ten-year-old daughter of Leo and Mary McMurray, worthy and intelligent colored people who live near Goshen colored church, seven miles south of the city.

The father's statement in regard to the crime is in effect as follows: On last Tuesday the girl was keeping house with her little brother and sister while her mother was attending the summer normal school for teachers.

The father was also away from home.
The mother returned home and found the three boys there and the girl tells the story of the crime. She says the boys found her in the yard, dragged her into the house and that Rufus Alston committed the crime while Robert Rankin held a pistol pointed at her head. John Clapp kept the smaller children, aged 7 and 4 years respectively, from running away and prevented them from screaming.

The case comes up before Squire Pritchett, in the court house this afternoon.

Col. John A. Barringer will represent the defendant and ex-Judge Spencer B. Adams will conduct the procedure.

District Conference.

The Greensboro District Conference which has been in session at H. H.'s chapel, two miles east of the city, since Wednesday, will finally adjourn tomorrow.

During the session only routine work has come up before the body and this has been disposed of in a very satisfactory manner.

Rev. Mr. Lanning preached an excellent sermon at the church last night.
At this morning's session, delegates to the Western North Carolina Conference were elected, after which Dr.
Dred Peacock, of Greensboro Female College, made a splendid address on education, and then spoke in the interest of his college.

The Right Step.

At the meeting of the board of aldermen last night the question of employing a special watchman at the railroad crossing on Summit avenue during gala week was discussed and the mayor was asked to confer with the Southern officials in regard to the matter. This is "a stitch in time." Thousands of people will cross the track there hourly during the days of festivities and unless a great deal of precaution is observed accidents will not be surprising.

ARREST OF DYNAMITE FIENDS

Whole Bureau of Combustibles Found in New York.

THE DANGER LINE IN CLEVELAND

Is Not Yet Passed—Another Car Dynamited Last Night—Hillita Still on Duty There.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

New York, July 29.—Frank J. Curran was brought to police headquarters this morning by central office detectives, who claim that he is one of the band of conspirators who have planned wholesale explosions in the city. Seventy-five pounds of dynamite were found in Curran's house, and taken from a bureau of combustibles.
Curran was formerly a motor-man on a Second avenue railroad and lost his position during the strike. A stick of dynamite was found on his person with several percussion caps and the whole was wrapped in adhesive paper. This, when placed upon the track causes an explosion. Another of the conspirators arrested is James Smith. He was arrested last night near the Second avenue power house.

APPEARS AT CLEVELAND.

Cleveland, July 29.—The dynamiting of another car last night demonstrated the fact that the danger point has not yet been passed. The military will not be released next week as previously intended. Eight passengers aboard the car were only slightly bruised.

THE BRICKLAYER'S STRIKE.

Chicago, July 29.—The strike of the union bricklayer's now involves ten thousand men. A conference is now being held of the interests involved, and hopes are entertained of an amicable settlement.

Shot for Stealing Melons.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Vicksburg, July 29.—Several posses are searching for a farmer who yesterday shot and seriously wounded four boys, all under ten, one fatal.
He claimed the boys were stealing his watermelons. This the boys deny. The farmer, whose name is Yerkes, used a double-barreled shot gun. There is danger that he may be lynched if caught.

Four Executions Next Week.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Albany, July 29.—There will be four executions here next week.
Oscar Riley and John Kennedy, who are in Auburn prison, are two of them, and Michael McDonald and Lewis Peterson, at Sing Sing, are the other two. The latter two will be executed on Monday and the others on Wednesday.

One of the Attractions.

By Wire to the TELEGRAM.

Burlington, July 29.—No expense will be spared to procure attractions for the president. A snake thirty-five long has been seen at Lake Champlain.

MR. W. R. VICKERS DEAD.

Expires Suddenly at His Home in Reidsville Last Night.

News was received here this morning of the death of Mr. W. R. Vickers, a prominent citizen of Reidsville.
Death occurred between 11 and 12 o'clock last night while sitting on the front porch of the Piedmont Hotel, of which he was proprietor. He was stricken with apoplexy and lived but a few minutes. In the death of Mr.
Vickers Reidsville loses a valuable citizen. He was a deacon in the Baptist church and a member of the Lodge of Knights of Pythias there. Mr.
Vickers passed through Greensboro day before yesterday returning home from White Sulphur Springs, Mt.
Airy, where he had been recuperating for some time.

His niece, Miss Rena Vickers, who has been in Greensboro for several days, left for Reidsville this morning to attend the funeral which will take place this afternoon.

The First Waterworks.

The Sanitary Record calls attention to the fact that Hezekiah, King of Judah (717-688 B. C.) was a pioneer in the construction of waterworks, having built a system to bring water to the city of Jerusalem. The Bible says: "He made the pool and the conduit, and brought the water into the city, stopping the upper part of Gihon, and brought it straight down the west side of the city of David and Hezekiah prospered in all his works." It is worthy of note that Hezekiah believed in municipal control of the water supply, and did not put the construction of the system into the hands of a gang of promoters.

Car Load Melons.

I have received a car load of fresh Wake county melons and canteloupes raised in two miles of Raleigh. Small melons 10c, large melons 15 to 35c.
They will average 25 to 50 pounds.
Order for Sunday, at J. H. West's.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU
HIGH POINT, N. C., July 29

Mrs. E. H. Davis and children of Roper, of Washington county, arrived last evening for a visit to Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dodge-mead.

Mrs. W. P. Effe, of Thomasville, wife of the evangelist, and her charming daughter Miss Elmer, were in the city yesterday, shopping.

Messrs John and Bob Lambeth, accompanied by their wives, represented Thomasville in High Point yesterday.

Tom Claiborne and G. R. Mitchell, of Lynchburg, were guests of the city yesterday, stopping at the Jarrell.

Miss Hattie Grimes, one of Thomasville's popular young ladies, was here yesterday.

Prof. Geo. H. Crowell, accompanied by Ed Mills, who left here some time ago on a trip to California and other western states, are expected home tonight. If they arrive Prof. Crowell will occupy the pulpit at this M. E. church tomorrow, as was announced last Sunday.

June B. Stroud and J. Ed Albright, of Greensboro, were in the city yesterday.

Representatives from England and other countries across the water and from Indiana, Iowa and several of the western states will be in attendance at the yearly meeting this year, which commences August 9th.

We learn that the meeting being conducted by Rev. J. M. Hilliard, at Colfax, is one of good results.

The gentleman who is getting names for the organization of the National Union Society here informs us that he needs only a few more names to complete the required number.

D. W. Allen of New York and John R. Barnes, of Baltimore, two well-known traveling men, were in the city yesterday.

Usual services at the Methodist and Presbyterian churches tomorrow.

An entertainment and cake walk by two colored people is advertised to take place next Monday night. The proceeds will be used in securing instruments for a colored brass band here.

Photographer S. L. Alderman, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday, on business.

In speaking of the kissing bug, and the great scare made of it, one of our citizens remarked: It is an ordinary thing for the traveling public, especially since "Uncle Nick" has been the proprietor.

We are pleased to note the large increase in patronage at the Jarrell. It is useless to name the reason—this hotel is favorably known by the traveling public, especially since "Uncle Nick" has been the proprietor.

Eight tomatoes that grew on one bush and weighing 10 pounds, is what our neighbor, Mr. Donahue Smith prides himself on. Can you beat it?

ALDERMANIC DOINGS.

Proceedings of the Board Meeting Last Night.

The board of aldermen held a regular meeting last night, Mayor Taylor in the chair. Present: Ellington, Price, Shields and Walker.

A committee, composed of C. H.
Ireland, Geo. S. Sergeant, and C. E.
Holton, from the board of education appeared before the board and asked for certain changes and repairs to the old St. Agnes Catholic church, recently bought by the city for school purposes, so that it could be used at the opening of the city schools in September. Alderman Hunter moved that the board authorize the board of education to have a new roof put on the building and put in permanent partitions, as recommended by the board of education. The motion was carried.

The clerk was ordered to issue warrants to pay the judgment of R. S.
Jones against the city.

Alderman Merri on offered an amendment to the dog tax, requiring dog owners to procure a check and attach to their dog, the penalty for failure to comply with the law being fixed at $5.

The board adjourned.

Theatrical Attractions.

Among the theatrical attractions of gala week, will be "The Diplomats," by the Greensboro Dramatic Club, on Tuesday evening, August 1st. The club is composed of some of the best local dramatic talent and the performance promises to be one of the most attractive. Reserved seats can be had at the drug store of John B. Farriss.

"Captain Dick" Caste, Attention!

Full rehearsal at the Academy tonight. It is hoped and confidently expected that all the members will be there.

REWARD for lemon and white 3 months old dog puppy.

MARTIN AND TYLER CONTEST

Both Men Claim the Lead for Virginia Senatorship.

TYLER SENTIMENT SPREADING.

Other Washington People to Join the President at Lake Champlain—North Carolina News.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, July 29.—Senator Martin, of Virginia, returned to Washington from Richmond Thursday night. He left this city in the morning for Richmond on business of political importance connected with his campaign for the United States senate. Senator Martin is in the best of health and spirits, and it is plain that he confidently anticipates a re-election when the contest reaches the state legislature. In spite of the fact that it is generally conceded that Governor Tyler got the advantage in the opening oratorical contest of the senatorial campaign, which promises to be one of the most earnest in the history of the Old Dominion, Senator Martin says that he is more than ever confident of his re-election, although he has all along been sure of it so far as his own mind is concerned. During the present week both Senator Martin and Governor Tyler have been traveling over the state a good deal. Both of the candidates have visited Norfolk and both candidates say that section is solid in their support. Persons who have no feeling either way coming from Norfolk and Newport News, as is evidenced by the statements of Postmaster Reed, of Newport News, referred to in this correspondence the other day, agree that the section will support Martin by a heavy majority.

Senator Martin himself says that his intelligence from all parts of the state, with the exception of the first, Representative Jones' district, is to the effect that he will lead in the contest by a safe majority.

Representative Jones has returned to this section from New York city, and he says that he will make frequent speeches for Tyler during the campaign. The governor, he says, will maintain two headquarters, one at Richmond and one at Radford. Mr.
Jones does not agree with Martin as to the outlook, but believes that Tyler sentiment in the state is spreading rapidly, and that it was given an impetus by the recent discussion at Hal-fax. Among those who will take part in the campaign for Tyler, according to Col. Jones, is Attorney General Montague, who is considered one of the best speakers in the state.

Postmaster General Smith and Mrs.
Smith will leave Washington in a few days for Lake Champlain to spend a few days with the President and Mrs.
McKinley. It was Mr. Smith's intention to accompany the President on his journey, but was compelled to postpone leaving the city on account of important business at the postoffice department which detained him.

During the President's absence at Lake Champlain it is believed that several of the cabinet officials will visit him. Secretary Root will also spend several days at the lake. At the white house it was stated yesterday that the President and Mrs. Mc-Kinley arrived safely, and that Mrs.
McKinley is in the best of health, having stood the journey well. It is hoped that she may derive much benefit from the outing.

Mrs. Evans, of Charleston, South Carolina, is in the city, having come to Washington to attend the marriage of her brother Richard H. Brooks to Mrs. George Tennyson Stewart, which took place Wednesday night at the residence of the bride's mother in this city. The couple are well known in the south. After the ceremony a reception was held, after which Mr. and Mrs. Brooks left the city for an absence of about three weeks.

Representative Davis, of Florida, arrived in the city yesterday morning and is stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel. Mr. Davis is here on business before the departments and will remain only a few days.

A new postoffice has been established at Bledsoe, Alleghany county, North Carolina. The new office is located three miles west from Stratford and four miles east of Sparta, North Carolina. John R. Edwards has been commissioned postmaster.

Pattie H. Perkinson has received her commission from the postoffice department as postmaster at Wise, North Carolina. The commission is dated July 26th.

Mr. George Cooper, of Winston, N.
C., was in the city Friday, being here on personal business. He is stopping at the St. James Hotel.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

North Carolina Had the Largest Delegation Ever Known Sent by Her.

North Carolina had the largest delegation at the Detroit Christian Endeavor Convention, July 5-10, than ever before at one of the international conventions.

During last year there has been a net gain of Christian Endeavor societies of nearly two thousand, and a net gain of members of over one hundred thousand. Christian Endeavor now numbers 55,813 societies in the world and 3,500,000 members. Every country in the world and island of the sea where the gospel has been carried now has societies of this world-wide gran-dification, Russia having admitted the organization during the past year.

During the Detroit convention more than one hundred persons were converted at the seven day evangelistic meetings. From different points of view, especially that of attendance at the various meetings and for spiritual power, this last convention goes down in history as one of the greatest if not the greatest yet held.

The convention of 1900 goes to London, Eng., the first time the international convention has crossed the ocean. However, it has been held in Canada.

The Most Hospitable.

In speaking of the coming gala week in this city, the Danville Daily Bee rises to remark:

Greensboro is putting on her Sunday clothes for this event, and her citizens are bubbling over with enthusiasm. Tremendous crowds are anticipated and everybody that comes may feel that they will be properly carried. Not only the hotels and boarding houses, but the private houses of the citizens will be thrown open to visitors. If you go to Greensboro you will not be "a stranger in a strange land," but you will be the guest of the most hospitable people on the globe.
They will take you by the hand and make you feel that you are among friends.

Married Her Third Husband.

Adelaide Patti, to whom America has paid more homage than any other living musician, was married to her third husband a short time ago. Just before this event she adorned one of the parlors in her magnificent castle in Wales with a Kimball piano, making the second instrument purchased from this great Kimball concern.

Several of their finest styles will soon be on exhibition at 123 South

A COMPLAINT.

A correspondent writes us this morning and asks if there is an ordinance in this city against the erection of wooden buildings in the fire limits. He also wants to know if any one has the right to rent one of these dirty little dens, and under the guise of keeping a restaurant, sell groceries, tobacco, cigars, and anything he may wish to sell, on Sunday.

To these questions we answer: There is an ordinance against the erection of wooden shanties or wooden buildings of any kind within the prescribed fire limits. In reply to the other question we are not familiar with the city ordinances in regard thereto, but no matter what the ordinance says, no man has the right, morally speaking, to carry on a mercantile business on Sunday. Six days the grocery stores are kept open, and until very late Saturday nights. Therefore, it is not necessary that a place be provided for provisions to be bought on Sunday.

It is different where a man is running a bona fide restaurant, but some of these places are located where no man would think of trying to make a living running a restaurant, and it is not supposed that all of them are making a living that way. It might be well to keep an eye on such, for they are bound to sell something in order to keep going. People have been seen to leave at least one of them very drunk late at night. Is it the kind of food they dispense there, or was the stuff bought from the dispensary before sundown and carried there to drink?

But another feature of this Sunday business is presented to us for consideration. Complaints are made that some places sell ice cream and cold drinks all day long on Sundays. Without suggesting that perhaps some "hot drinks" are mixed in, too, we ask:

Is such business as this what is meant by the commandment: "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy?" Is this in compliance with the Scripture which says: "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work?"

Some one has recently propounded the question: "What is the Industrial and Immigration Association doing?" and the question was answered in a rather indifferent manner, as much as to say that "the association doesn't amount to much." This sort of thing leaves the men who compose the association in a light which does them an injustice. From the peculiar nature of the association's work, any man with a fair share of intelligence can see that it would not aid it to publish all they are trying to do, but it would be a positive drawback to them. They have done much good work in the past and are doing much good work now. The annual meeting will probably be held in a short while and then the public will be favored with an account of their stewardship. From our knowledge of what is being done for the city of Greensboro, and who is doing it, there are none who are more liberally and unselfishly giving their time and means than the president and members of the Industrial and Immigration Association.

Some things that have happened recently remind one of the story by Zola, the ancient Grecian fabulist, which relates, as how, when the church made inroads into the devil's territory the devil became very solicitous about the welfare of the church. And the devil can practice a lie to perfection as well today as he could in the days of Babel.

STICKING TO THE MULE.

The Doctrine of Holding Fast Discussed by Mr. Troy.

Correspondence Telegram.

In 1888 I was assigned by the bishop presiding over the conference held at Asheville, to the Murphy circuit. To Asheville, to my appointment in the good county of Cherokee, it became necessary for me to cross a swollen stream, the Tuckasegee river. Not being acquainted with the ford, I asked direction of a farmer living near by. He said: "She's purty high, but if you follow my direction maybe you can get over." After getting information, I rode straightway down into the water, not under, although "she was much water there," and kept my eyes fixed on the other side. I remember that during the passage through the turbulent stream, I prayed some; but most of the time was sticking to my mule. I prayed of course, but at the same time was doing all I could to stay on, and I stuck. Eleven years have gone by since that time, and the present finds me as then, trying to stay on to stick. That's the thing to do. The man who doesn't stick to something good has a mighty uncomfortable time in these lowlands of sin and sorrow. But if he sticks, honestly and faithfully, he need have no fears that he will not make the ford even though the waters roll high. Success in any honorable calling or profession is largely a matter of endurance which is only another name for sticking. The man who sticks will always get across the ford. He who doesn't, will be as a wave of the water, "storm-tossed and driven," and finally go down in the whirlpool.

A young man, mentally clever, asked me to recommend a suitable place for him to hang out his shingle and begin the practice of medicine. I gave him the desired information and he located at the point suggested. After a few months he writes that he is not the place for him and he wants to leave. If he begins that kind of business he will find no place agreeable. The man who locates in any town, will find established, successful lawyers, all of whom have succeeded because they stuck. And he must not think that he can reach a point of desperation in a few months which required years of patient toil on the part of these older brothers to attain. This young man has had called to his attention the doctrine of patience. And if he will take some of his medicine daily, he will have success. No man can come out at the big end of the horn who doesn't go in at the little end. Religion and common-sense and sticking to the mule will always win in the battle of life.

Therefore, as we are called to battle with the waves of life's tempestuous sea, forget not to keep on praying and sticking. Together these two virtues make a strong team. Never forget to keep His word in mind. I tell you, my friends, that we cannot overestimate the supporting power of Him who says, that He is with us always, even unto the end of the world. I know whereof I speak. I have put His words to the test; to the supreme test. Is it for me to record that the test has been a failure? No! To do so would be repudiation. If we lay hold on His word, we have a good thing—a lifeboat. "Prove all things," is splendid doctrine; but, "Hold fast that which is good," is better. And "holding fast," is sticking. When Rudyard Kipling was a boy he climbed the mast one day, of his father's vessel, and went out on the yard-arm. A seaman was much distressed and ran below crying out to old Captain Kipling, "your son Rudyard, is out on the yard-arm, and if he lets go he will fall and be killed." "That's true," replied the old man, who knew the stuff in the boy, "but he won't let go." That's the idea; don't let go. All that I own today is my faith in God as a Shelter in the time of the storm. We cannot afford to let that go. If so, what have you left? Col. Igersoll, who has gone up in snags, advised men to "let go;" but Paul advised, "hold fast." Which of the two had you rather emulate? My mistakes in life have been many. And failures innumerable fallen on my plans; but my faith and my faith in God will never be a mistake. And in the darkest hour will tell you of the dawning of a fairer and brighter day. Then hold on to faith.

"When through the deep waters I call thee to go, The river of woe shall not thee over-flow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless, And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress."
—J. C. Troy.

Mr. A. Saunders, writing from Coconaut Grove, Fla., says there has been quite an epidemic of diarrhoea there. He had a severe attack and was cured by four doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says he also recommended it to others and they say it is the best medicine they ever used. WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.
JACKSON, WYOM., Nov. 29.
I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.
Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Seeking Rest, Or Health Or Pleasure?
Then Read This:

Mt. Vernon Springs Hotel is now open for the reception of guests. The waters from the Mt. Vernon Springs are equalled by few and surpassed by none in the state for medicinal and curative properties. Some of its cures are almost miraculous. Its taste is pleasant, cool, palatable and refreshing, and you enjoy it from the first. The springs are surrounded by great natural beauty. Around the premises is a dense oak grove and the air is pure and invigorating.

This most desirable of health and pleasure resorts is located just one mile west of Ore Hill in Chatham county. For further information address the owner and proprietor,

"Line of Parade"

For the Firemen's Tournament was published in the papers with one exception, and that was, instead of stopping at the court house, they ought to have added: From there everybody will go to the Greensboro Pressing Club and have their suit or uniform neatly cleaned and pressed. Now don't forget this. You will want to look neat and clean, so profit by the above. Phone 162 will get us.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Miss Mabel Seehrest, of High Point, is visiting Miss Emma Pott on East Washington street.

Miss Lottie Markham, of Durham, passed through the city at noon going to Reidsville to visit friends.

Miss Tom, of China Grove, arrived yesterday afternoon to spend gala week with her friend, Miss Minnie Gorrell, on Ashe street.

Murray Brothers today print their last warning about accidents during gala week. Have them to write you a policy early in the rush.

J. S. Hunter, secretary and treasurer of the Huper Manufacturing Company, will leave tonight for New York on a short business trip for his company.

Bendheim leads with a gala sale. Visitors will do well to visit them for anything in the dry goods line. They name attractive prices especially for gala week.

Rev. John E. White, secretary of the board of missions, will preach at the West Washington Street Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

Miss Mary Lindsay returned last evening from Durham, where she has been visiting for some time. She was accompanied home by Miss Eunice Markham, who will spend gala week with her.

Dr. Burbank, the eminent ophthalmologist, has returned from Virginia Beach, where he and Mrs. Burbank have been sojourning for a month. Dr. Burbank will be at his office, over Gardner's drug store, during gala week.

June Jones, the very colorful gentleman who was arrested and carried to Reidsville a few days ago to answer for an assault, requests us to state that he has "returned back" to Greensboro and will resume his work at Ingram's on Monday. June says they couldn't prove their case, but that it cost him $7.45.

GOOD ROADS CONGRESS

And Horticultural Society Meet in Lindsay Street School.

The road congress and horticultural society during gala week will be practically run together. The meetings will be held in the chapel at the Lindsay street graded school. This is the best hall in town, having a seating capacity of 1,000 people.

The first meeting will be held at two o'clock p. m. Tuesday, August 1st, and a continued meeting at eight p. m. on the same day. At the evening meeting a lecture will be given by Prof. J. A. Holmes, accompanied by stereopticon views. A lecture will also be given by Prof. Sanderson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, on entomology, or dangerous insects, also illustrated by stereopticon views.

Capt. S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg county, will also address the meeting on "The Money Value of Good Roads."
